ABOUT ME

- I'm a social media marketer with a strong interest in content creation, ads management, and brand communication.
- My work combines creative execution with strategic thinking, from planning content and developing campaign ideas to designing social media creatives, running paid ad campaigns and editing Reels, writing captions, and supporting content shoots.
- Through my experience working with food and restaurant brands, I've developed an understanding of how to create platform-relevant content that showcases products, communicates a brand's personality, and connects with its target audience.
- I enjoy turning everyday brand moments into engaging content while continuously learning, experimenting, and improving my approach to digital marketing.

SKILLS OVERVIEW

Content Creation

Ability to design visually appealing and engaging content.

Analytics

Familiar with Meta Ads Manager and Analytics tools to track performance and run paid ads.

Community Engagement

Skilled in fostering community interaction and brand loyalty.

Trend Analysis

Ability to stay ahead of social media trends and implement them effectively.

FOOD & BEVERAGES INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Gained hands-on experience working with multiple food and beverage brands under BYNGE KITCHENS INDIA PVT. LTD. including Khameera & Bhatura Boys.

My work involved social media management, content creation, graphic design, Reels editing, content shoot planning, and campaign execution.

I focused on creating engaging, brand-aligned content to showcase food offerings, communicate promotions, and strengthen each brand’s social media presence.
